Business

Background

The food and beverages franchise business has highly contributed to the economic development of Republic of Indonesia; therefore it needs to be followed with the development of small and medium enterprises through partnership. In order to support the development of partnerships in the food and beverages franchise business, the Ministry of Trade has promulgated Minister of Trade Regulation No. 07/M-DAG/PER/2/2013 on the Development of Partnership in Food and Beverages Franchise Business (“F&B Franchise Regulation”). This regulation completes the Minister of Trade Regulation No. 53/M-DAG/PER/8/2012 on Franchise Implementation (“Implementation Regulation”) and the Minister of Trade Regulation No. 68/M-DAG/PER/10/2012 on Franchise of Modern Retail Stores.

Change of Claim

Herzeine Inlandsch Reglement (“HIR”) and Reglement Buiten Govesten (“RBg”) do not regulate the provisions of changing of claim. The legal basis for changing of claim is regulated under Article 127 Reglement op de Rechtsvordering (“Rv”).

There are some provisions on the period of time to propose a changing of claim, as follows:

1. Until main dispute is decided This period of time is affirmed under the provision of Article 127 of Rv. Article 127 of Rv regulates that the plaintiff has the right to change or reduce the claim until the main dispute is decided. This period of time is considered giving the plaintiffs too much right and is considered as an abuse against the defendant.
